

CAMPER RULES

1. Short shorts (all shorts must be finger-tip length or longer), short skirts, shirts with spaghetti straps, belly shirts, electronic devices of any kind (including tablets, laptops, and cell phones), pocket knives sling shots, snacks or candy—exception: special diets and food allergies. Any camper dressed inappropriately will be asked to change clothes
2. No electronic device (including cell phones), comics, magazines, or other entertainment items are allowed. We have a unique program which will not allow time for these items. If any of these items are brought to camp they will be removed and kept in the camp office until the end of camp at which time they will be returned to the parent.
3. Snacks from home (for special diets) will be stored in the camp store (Trading Post) with the camper's name on them. Snacks brought from home for campers without a special diet must either return home with the parent on registration day or be kept in the camp office and returned to the parent upon pick up. We are camping outside, so No food can be kept in tepees.
4. No illegal drugs, alcohol, tobacco, vaping, knives, guns, lewd or profane language is allowed at any time. Parents and visitors, this rule applies to you as long as you are on camp property.
5. Campers are to remain on the camp grounds at all times.
6. Campers are to be present and participate in all activities unless written exclusion is given by a doctor or the camp nurse. Any illness must be reported to the medical person immediately.
